

WHAT YOU DO, DO IT WELL.

This Is Important For Health

Building in May.

Thousands of Cures Made by Paine's Celery
CompoundShould Convince You of Its Value.

"What you do, do it well." In the golden rule of business life. This rule and far-reaching command can be profitably observed in many other conditions of life. In sickness and suffering it is all-important that "what you do" be done well. While the remedy is being used, the experience of your friends and neighbors and the thousands rescued from sickness and suffering will point directly to Paine's Celery Compound as the infallible relief.

People who think they will get rid of troubles such as rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia and nervous disorders by medicine which have not yet passed the experimental stage will be sadly disappointed and find their sufferings increased.

To get rid of rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia and nervous complaints, it is wisdom to use Paine's Celery Compound, a medicine that proceeds at once to make the appetite normal, sleep natural and refreshing, the nerves strong, as a foundation for building up health and vigor.

If sick people in May look for a true nerve strengthener, an honest blood purifier, a reliable diuretic, that will restore strength, renew vitality, regulate the kidneys, liver and bowels, they should at once make use of Paine's Celery Compound, and note the speedy and pleasing results that flow from its use.

It's easy to dye with Diamond Dyes.
Simple. Durable. Economical.CARUPANO CARNAGE
FRIGHTFUL TO BEHOLDDefenseless Women and Children Killed by Attacking Government Gunboats.

NO WARNING WAS GIVEN.

Foreigners Received No Protection and Their Appeals for Assistance
Have Not Been Answered—Castro Repulsed.

SPECIAL BY CABLE TO THE NEW YORK HERALD AND THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC.
Port of Spain, Trinidad, May 11.—(Copy-right, 1902.) I have just returned from Carupano, the Venezuelan seaport town, which was attacked by land and sea on May 6 by Government troops, and gunboats without twenty-four hours' notice having been given, so that noncombatants could leave the town.

Never before has such carnage been seen as was wrought by shells from the three gunboats and by the firing of the troops. Many persons were killed in the town, and it is impossible to give an approximate number.

Foreigners in Carupano are without assistance from their respective Governments, notwithstanding their appeals. The unprotected Venezuelan families, in the name of humanity, protest against the shelling by Castro's forces of commercial towns without giving the notice required under the rules of civilized warfare.

It was lately Iropa, yesterday Tucaca and today Carupano where women and children without defense were mercilessly slaughtered.

The mothers of Carupano send to their sisters of the United States a cry for sympathy and implore their assistance.

The Republic published yesterday an account of the attack by Venezuelan troops under the command of General Gomez, and by the gunboats Restaurador, Agorito and Zumbado on Carupano, which was defended by the revolutionists.

The latter repulsed the attacking army and put it to rout. The Government force left 115 men dead and 210 wounded on the field. General Gomez was wounded twice, but escaped and boarded one of the gunboats.

Many residents of Carupano were killed. There are about 200 persons in the foreign colony of Carupano, which has nearly 30,000 inhabitants. The town is a seaport of the State of Bermudez, and is 250 miles from Caracas.

PETITIONS FOR A RECEIVER.

Mrs. Lillie M. Walker Wants Damages Against Oxford College.

Cincinnati, O., May 11.—In the United States Court Mrs. Lillie M. Walker of Philadelphia petitions for a receiver for Oxford College at Oxford, O., and names as defendants William M. Shera, Charles H. Shera, Caleb A. Shera, George G. Welliver and ex-Congressman H. L. Morris, all of whom are directors of the institution.

Prior to 1897 Mrs. Walker owned the college property and her husband, Doctor F. S. Walker, was president of the college. A stock company was afterwards organized, of which Mrs. Walker became a stockholder, and the present suit is for both an accounting and damages.

Mrs. Walker is a daughter of the late Doctor Morris, who was formerly president of the college and a prominent Presbyterian minister.

YOUNG GIRL DROWNS HERSELF.

Grief Over Death of Both Parents
Responsible for Suicide.

July 11.—A seventeen-year-old girl, Annie Clark, jumped into the Chicago canal to-day and was drowned. She recently lost both her parents and grief is supposed to have unhinged her mind.

Meat Eaters

gain strength and Economy on Grape-Nuts

all Grocers

DESMOND STILL HOPEFUL

OF SECURING KRAZ'S RETURN.

Fugitive Enjoying Himself With His Friends in the Midst of Mexican Festival—Three Men Want Reward Offered in Chief Kiely's
Circular—Chief Desmond's Attorney Says Warrant
From Governor Dockery Is Without Value.

Special Correspondence of The Republic.
Guadalajara, Mexico, May 5.—To-day, while the inhabitants of Guadalajara are noisily celebrating the victory of the Mexicans over the French at Puebla, Chief Kiely's circular and his friends are quietly celebrating their recent victory over the Commonwealth of Missouri in the Hotel Cosmopolita, overlooking the patio, or courtyard.

Thomas F. Fauntleroy, associate of Judge Thomas H. Harty in looking after the St. Louis end of Kraiz's legal business, arrived at noon, in time to participate in the jubilation. When he left St. Louis he expected to arrive in time for the legal controversy which he anticipated would be waged over the attempted extradition of Kraiz. He was considerably disappointed to learn that he arrived too late.

Mr. Fauntleroy, however, did not lose heart. He sought Kraiz in his room and re-entred immediately upon registering Fauntleroy in conference with him for an hour, learning all that had taken place since Kraiz was first arrested, and posted himself as to what steps should be taken to protect Kraiz during his residence in Guadalajara. To a friend whom he met on the train en route to Guadalajara, Fauntleroy is said to have announced that Kraiz will remain in Mexico.

Mr. Fauntleroy had an extended conference with Fernando Castanos, who represented Kraiz in his recent trouble. Monday afternoon in Kraiz's room, and the situation was thoroughly canvassed. The result was not made public. Messrs. Fauntleroy and Castanos declaring that there was nothing of interest to the public they wished published. Mr. Fauntleroy had told the Republic reporter before the conference that he would endeavor to induce Kraiz to submit to an interview if the conditions were favorable, but later he announced that for the present at least there was no reason to hope for a personal interview.

Mr. Fauntleroy had several meetings with Chief Desmond in the day. The Chief told him he was extremely desirous of seeing Kraiz, but only if only if Kraiz would agree to a few words to him, in the presence of his lawyers and friends. He said that if the questions he addressed Kraiz were such as to show his friends that he was a politician for him to answer, he could advise him not to answer, and he would be content. All he desired was an opportunity to see and speak to Kraiz in a friendly manner, not as an officer, to demonstrate that he contemplated no overt act.

Mr. Fauntleroy promised to broach the subject to his client and see how he felt about it. Later he told Desmond that it was useless to look for a personal interview with Kraiz, since Kraiz was determined not to have anything to do with him as long as he remained in Guadalajara.

Castanos ignores Desmond.
Senor Castanos, who has been clothed with power of attorney by Kraiz, has told after all his interests here, utterly ignores the presence of Desmond and McGrath. He declares they are not accredited representatives of anything or anybody, and that he will not entertain any proposition from them treating for an interview with Kraiz. He says that newspaper men, while not under the ban, must depend upon Kraiz's own willingness to talk to them. He has advised Kraiz not to have anything to do with Desmond, and he expresses the opinion that Kraiz's refusal to see newspaper men is a wise one.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Kraiz Enjoying Himself.
"I never saw Kraiz looking better in all the time I have known him," said Fauntleroy, after a visit to the police station to-day. "He is looking remarkably well, bright and clear, and is full of life. There are no nervous or mental ailments about him now that he knows his rights and understands how to uphold them. One thing I admire about him is his true confidence in his friends. He is sure that whatever he might say to them would be repeated to Desmond, and that an interview with reporters would be the result of an interview given to Desmond. Desmond maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

Desmond, however, maintains a cheerful demeanor, and, despite persistent rebuffs, continues his attempts to wear down the feeling of hostility. He is applying the same patient, persevering tactics that have won him such credit in difficult cases before this, notably the Kilpatrick and Strother cases.

GORMAN SAYS BEER

TRUST IS THE ISSUE

Rich and Poor Alike Are Intensely
Interested and Political Significance Cannot Be Denied.

CHANCE FOR THE DEMOCRACY.

Maryland Senator Believes There
Is General Disposition to Break
Away From Old Party Lines to Punish Those Responsible.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Washington, May 11.—"The Herald has given you the issue, gentlemen—the closures about the Beer Trust. The people in this country are not giving much thought to the water cure and the sand cures, but they are doing some very hard thinking about the Beer Trust. The women are going to have a voice in the coming campaign, and if you have any doubt as to how raising the price of beer affects the housekeeper go down to Lexington Market in Baltimore Saturday night and hear what the women have to say to their butchers."

This is the kind of talk Senator-elect A. P. Gorman of Maryland has been indulging in at his conferences with the members of the Democratic Congressional Committee. Senator Gorman has from the very first been deeply impressed with the magnitude of the exposure as a factor in the approaching campaign. He told Representative Griggs of Pennsylvania, the chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, that the committee would be acting wisely in heeding the bulk of its campaign literature on the newspaper article which has made no secret of its impressions upon this point. He has talked with hundreds of public men about the importance of the issue to the Democratic party, and has always emphasized the information about the meat octopus which has been appearing in the columns of the papers.

Working People Deeply Interested.
Senator Gorman believes that it would be impossible for the Democrats to find an issue if they did not have the country with a search warrant, that would bring home to the people of the country in such a way that they would not be able to ignore it. To a group of Democrats last night he is reported to have said that the Democrats must break away from old party lines and have now. He regards the Home-Steak story, which emphasized the Democratic break away from old party lines, as a mere bagatelle when compared with the Beer Trust issue as a political force.

Senator Gorman related several instances to show how closely the workingmen and farmers are interested in the issue. Some workmen were employed at his country home near Laurel, Md. One of the last week a policeman told the senator for some newspapers to take home with him. The senator had a large number of daily papers, and he had read the one which had the Home-Steak story. He asked the man what kind of paper he wished. Upon being questioned, the policeman said he was taking a deep interest in the fight being made against the Beer Trust and he wanted to keep his family posted on the subject.

Will Be Made an Issue.
The senator questioned him further and ascertained that he was a member of the Beer Trust. He was deeply interested in the issue, as well as the wealthy classes, the Beer Trust is attracting more attention than any other subject now being discussed in the newspapers. Workingmen who are receiving fair wages complain that their wages are being cut down by the Beer Trust. The senator is reported to have said that the Beer Trust is a political force, and he wanted to keep his family posted on the subject.

Steadfast to Jewish Faith.
Orthodox Hebrews in New York
Against Accepting Sabbath.
New York, May 11.—The discussion concerning the observance of the Sabbath, which arose during the annual session of the Conference of the American Jewish community in New Orleans recently, has stirred up more or less argument among the orthodox Hebrews in this city.

It was made to the liberal school of rabbis, who raised the question in the conference to the extent of suggesting that the observance of the Sabbath be changed. The Talmud Torah Committee of the Ohav Zedek congregation, this city, and the Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati, were among the dissenters. The committee, however, was not successful in its attempt to change the Sabbath.

Dr. Bradford's Book Has Been Examined by Committee.
Cardinaline, Ill., May 11.—Interest is being taken in religious circles over the trial which opens Tuesday at Freiburg of the Reverend Columbus Bradford for heresy. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

Dr. Bradford's book, "The New Church," has been very successful in the charge. The Cardinaline of Freiburg, who is the head of the Catholic Church in the district of the M. E. Church, and to this body the Reverend Bradford was referred for examination.

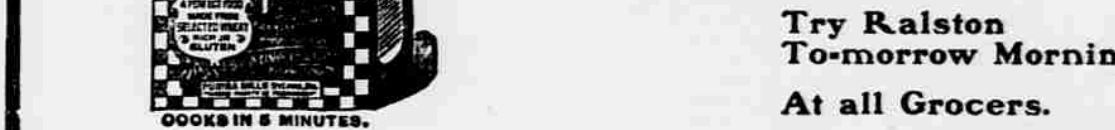

15c Worth of Beef

Won't go very far at any time—certainly not just now. But 15c will buy a 2-lb. checkerboard package of which will give five members of your family, for six mornings, a heaping dish full of delicious food. Ever so much more healthful, with the same amount of strengthening power at one-fifth the cost.

RALSTON BREAKFAST FOOD

Try Ralston To-morrow Morning. At all Grocers.

COULD'S OWN 15,000 MILES OF RAILROAD

Transcontinental System Is Almost Complete—Touches Lakes and Gulf.

With the acquisition of the Western Maryland, the mileage of railroads controlled by the Goulds passes the 15,000 mark. It almost completes a continuous line from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Already this system reaches from the Lakes to the Gulf, touching both at several points. When the strike order was not certain of being religiously obeyed, there would be no mileage at all. It is expected that a few years will see the mileage about 20,000.

Probably the most important effect upon the industrial situation that will be exercised in consequence of the purchase of the West Virginia Central and the Western Maryland railroads, says the Manufacturers' Record, will be the free marketing of the immense coal supply of West Virginia. The influence of these railroad deals, considered from a fuel standpoint, could hardly be overestimated. The West Virginia Central, with its 150 miles of line, connects the coal fields of almost virgin coal territory, compared with Pennsylvania's less than 100 miles of line.

Connection with the West Virginia Central could be made by two routes. One is by the Chesapeake and Ohio, and the other by the Baltimore and Annapolis. The West Virginia Central could be connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio by a line northward from Cumberland.

The line making up this great system are as follows: The Washburn Railroad, reaching Buffalo, N. Y., from Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha, with a total of 2,484 miles. The Wheeling and Lake Erie, reaching Toledo, Ohio, from Cleveland, with a total of 460 miles.

The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo. The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo. The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo.

THOUGHTFUL MINERS

OPPOSED TO STRIKE

They Point Out Significant Fact That Operators Are Not Urging Men to Stay In.

GENERAL SHUT-DOWN TO-DAY.

All Operations Practically Suspended Till Wednesday at Least—Election Delegates to Hazleton Conference.

Scranton, Pa., May 11.—There will be no coal mined in the Scranton end of the anthracite region to-morrow. Even though the strike order was not certain of being religiously obeyed, there would be no mileage at all. It is expected that a few years will see the mileage about 20,000.

Probably the most important effect upon the industrial situation that will be exercised in consequence of the purchase of the West Virginia Central and the Western Maryland railroads, says the Manufacturers' Record, will be the free marketing of the immense coal supply of West Virginia. The influence of these railroad deals, considered from a fuel standpoint, could hardly be overestimated. The West Virginia Central, with its 150 miles of line, connects the coal fields of almost virgin coal territory, compared with Pennsylvania's less than 100 miles of line.

Connection with the West Virginia Central could be made by two routes. One is by the Chesapeake and Ohio, and the other by the Baltimore and Annapolis. The West Virginia Central could be connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio by a line northward from Cumberland.

The line making up this great system are as follows: The Washburn Railroad, reaching Buffalo, N. Y., from Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha, with a total of 2,484 miles. The Wheeling and Lake Erie, reaching Toledo, Ohio, from Cleveland, with a total of 460 miles.

The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo. The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo.

The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo. The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo.

The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo. The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo.

The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo. The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo.

The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo. The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo.

The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo. The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo.

The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo. The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo.

The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo. The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo.

The Texas and Pacific, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Dallas, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo. The Denver and Rio Grande, with 1,712 miles, reaching from Denver, Colo., to St. Louis, Mo.